on July 7, 2011 I the plaintiff had been told by the property officer in housing unit #4 COII S.A. Wilson that I would have to give him an address to send my property home. I asked him why do I have to send my property home when it is not contraband and I would like a hearing if the institution is forfeiting my property he told me that I am not entitled to a hearing and that my property was being confiscated per WCI ID 110-6-1 because I recieved 210 days segregation time and if I did not provide the institution with an address my property would be destroyed. I then expressed that I was not finished the appeals process and that my case was before the inmate Grievance office and this was a violation of the D.O.C. Case 1:13-cv-01415-GJR Document 1 Filed 05/15/13 Page 4 of 4 220.0004 allowable property matrix (June 3, 2011) procedural due process was violated. On October 26, 2011 the Administrative Law Judge D. Harrison Pratt, rendered a decision to reverse the hearing officer's decision and sanction for rules 104, 400, and 405, this reversal was affirmed by Secretary Gary D. Maynard on December 7, 2011 meaning that the sanction of 210 days was no longer valid so my property was illegally confiscated and forfeited.

On January 3, 2012, the plaintiff wrote an ARP requesting that I be reimbursed for all property confiscated and forfeited, then appeal and ultimately to the inmate Grievance Office; in my grievance I stated there was nothing in the policy or DCD that confirms anything concerning that if a prisoner receives 180 days his property is to be sent home and it still violates procedural due process not to be able to appeal an adjustment decision to the inmate grievance office; and on June 12, 2012 Deputy Director Robin Woolford administratively dismissed my grievance. Officer S.A. Wilson was informed by me that this actions violated my rights and he disregarded these rights. As well after this case was reversed I attempted to write warden Frank Bishop Jr. to show that a mistake was made and he did not address this matter appropriately Western Correctional Institution is in violation of my property rights in accordance to my United States Constitutional rights to due process.
